An opportunity to take lessons in patriotism was afforded to citizens of Salt Lake yesterday evening at the Harriman depot. The occasion was the arrival at 6:35 o'clock of a special train loaded with Greeks, who are on their way from Los Angeles to the second of way from Los Angeles to the scene of the war against the Turks. More than 1000 local Greeks met their countrymen at the depot and headed by officers of the Pen-Hellenic union escorted them to the Greek Orthodox church where an nformal reception was tendered them. Speeches were made by prominent local Greeks, the principal address in the church being by S. Staes, secretary of the Pan-Hellenic union.

After the reception, the volunteers were escorted through the Greek section of the city and through the business section and then back to the station.

of Great Value to the Public.

Warren C. Bogue, city purchasing agent, was yesterday authorized to seare bids for the printing of the police Patk has had in course of preparation a number of months.

The manuel, which while primarily intended for the members of the police intended for the members of the police department and city officials, will contain a vast amount of general information to the general public. Police matters comprise a large portion of the work, including the general orders of the department, the uniform regulations, the ordinance creating the present organization and a set of rules and regulations for the department.

ent organization and a set of rules and regulations for the department.

Of particular interest at this time is a regulation prescribing what part a police officer may take in election activity and outlining his duties on election day. The regulation, which becomes a written law, so far as the government of the police department is concerned, is also an unwritten law in all city departments and is in line with a resolution recently passed by the city commission to the same general effect.

Regulation in Full.

Regulation in Full.

The regulation in full is as follows:
The right of every member of the police force to entertain political or partisan opinion and to express same freely when such expression shall not concern the immediate discharge of his official duty, and also the right of elective franchise, will be decuned sacred and inviolate, but no member of the force will be permitted to be a delegate or representative to, or member of, any political or partisan convention whose purpose is the nomination of a candidate or candidates to any political office.

On the days of election for public officers held under the laws of the city state or nation, he shall, whether specially assigned to attend the polis or otherwise, do all within his power to preserve the peace, protect the integrity of the ballot box, enforce the rights of lawful vuters and prevent illegal or fraudulent voting.

Valuable Information.

Valuable Information.

In addition to those things outlined In addition to those things outlined in the foregoing, the manual will contain a complete list of all streets, avenues and alleys in the city and describe their exact location. A list of the street car lines, railroad offices, hospitals, the time tables of the railroads centering in Salt Lake, depot locations, principal buildings and most important places of interest and amisement in the city and buildings and most important places of interest and amusement in the city and nearby are also given in the manual. In each case there is given a brief resume of the best and quickest method of reaching the several points.

The relationship between the police department and the fire and health departments is also given, together with a list of fire and police boxes, a set of rules for quick aid to the injured, including a list of antidotes for poisons. In the cases of all offices, hospitals, morgues, etc., the telephone number is also given.
